

IEEE EMBS ISC 2018 EUROPE

Enhancing the integration of technology into medicine and healthcare

May 5-6, 2018

Izmir, Turkey

Call for papers

- Welcome to the very first European leg of IEEE Engineering in Medicine and Biology Society International Student Conference (ISC) to be held on 5-6 May 2018 at Izmir Katip Çelebi University Central Campus! The conference is organized by students, for the students who would like to tell people how they are enhancing the integration of technology into medicine and healthcare, displayed as posters or heard through an oral presentation upon their acceptance. If they satisfy the scope, topics and submission guidelines, students who are working in the field of biomedical engineering and other related fields will have a chance to receive rewards when they present their work on solving existing problems!
- Don't hesitate to contact us if you have any questions about the validity of the research and the compatibility with the tracks.
